TO OUR PATRONS

Our plants for this Spring's shipment are fine and if you are expecting to plant this Spring it will be well for you to get your order in and make sure of having no disappointment in having to choose a second choice as is the case in late ordering.

You will notice that we have cut out a number of the varieties that seemed to be of little importance to the strawberry grower and confining our list to the old staple kinds that all growers are familiar with.

Very truly yours,
